

By accessing any Critical Energy Infrastructure Information, as determined by Avista by using the criteria for CEII, as defined in 18 C.F.R. § 388.113, (“CEII”) posted on this OASIS, you (i) represent and warrant that you are eligible to receive CEII and have, as contemplated by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (“Commission”), a legitimate interest in and legitimate need for CEII from Avista Corporation (“Avista”) (ii) represent and warrant that you will use any CEII received from Avista only for the purposes for which the Commission has required its disclosure, and (iii) specifically agree and acknowledge as follows:

- (a) you shall use any CEII received from Avista only for your legitimate interest and legitimate need and shall only share such CEII with employees, subcontractors and agents who need to know such information for your legitimate interest and legitimate need and who have agreed, for the benefit of Avista, to be bound (in the same manner as you) by the terms of this paragraph;
- (b) you shall take reasonable steps to protect any CEII received from Avista (but in any event steps that are no less rigorous than you would use to protect your own confidential information), to ensure that neither you nor any person or entity who receives such CEII directly or indirectly from you distributes such CEII further except as permitted pursuant to item (a) above, or uses such CEII for any purpose other than for the purposes described above; and
- (c) you shall destroy any CEII received from Avista and in your possession if and at such time when such CEII is no longer needed for the purposes described above, when you are no longer eligible to receive CEII or when such CEII has been superseded or has become obsolete. Upon request by Avista, you shall certify to Avista that such destruction has occurred.
