

Portland General Electric

Outage Postings

Information concerning outages on PGE's transmission system is posted on the Production Node of this OASIS website.

To gain access a "Production Node Login" is needed and requires company and user registration with the OATI node administrator. Return to the home page and click on "Registration" in the upper left corner to acquire more information about obtaining access.