

05/06/09

During a review of employees with restricted access on May 4, 2009, PSE learned that a merchant employee had inappropriate access to certain non-public transmission information. The merchant employee was not aware of the access and by all accounts, it appears he never accessed any non-public transmission information. The Company immediately blocked his access to non-public transmission information.