

Statement of the Process by Which PSEI Will Add, Delete, or Otherwise Modify the Rules, Standards, and Practices That Are Accessible Via OASIS

July 9, 2007

PSEI will post--with its rules, standards, and practices--on its public website with a corresponding electronic link to its OASIS (or on the publicly-available portion of its OASIS with a corresponding electronic link from its public website) notice of proposed additions, deletions, or modifications to those rules, standards, and practices. Such notice will be posted by the later to occur of

- (i) 30 days before the proposal is proposed to go into effect and
- (ii) the earliest date by which such notice is reasonably practicable.

Such notice of a proposal shall include the associated proposed effective date for such proposal.

Upon the posting of such notice, each person or entity that has then requested notice of proposed additions, deletions, or modifications of rules, standards, and practices (and has provided the e-mail address(es) to receive such notices) will receive notice of such posting. Any person or entity may request such notices by e-mailing a request for such notices to transmaster@pse.com that includes the e-mail address(es) to which such notices are to be sent. Any person or entity that has requested such notices shall, by e-mail to transmaster@pse.com, advise of any changes to the e-mail address(es) to which such notices are to be sent.

From time to time, Transmission Provider may request comments on posted proposals and respond to such comments. Unless otherwise indicated in the posted request for comments, all such comments should be e-mailed to transmaster@pse.com.
