Development and Posting of Business Practices

1. General

- 1.1 This Business Practice contains the process by which SRP will add, delete, or modify the rules, standards and practices that are posted on its website.
- 1.2 "Business Practice" is the term SRP will use to describe such rules, standards and practices.

2. Advance Notice of Additions, Modifications or Deletions to SRP Business Practices

- 2.1 Except under emergency conditions, no later than five (5) working days prior to implementation of an additional Business Practice or a modification to an existing Business Practice, SRP will post such Business Practice on the publicly available portion of its OASIS. The version number and implementation date of the new or modified Business Practice will be denoted on the Business Practice.
- 2.2 Except under emergency conditions, no later than five (5) working days prior to the deletion of a Business Practice, SRP will post a notification of the deletion of the Business Practice on the publicly available portion of its OASIS. The termination date of the Business Practice will be included in the notification.

3. Emergency Additions, Modifications or Deletions to SRP Business Practices

- 3.1 In the event SRP determines that a Business Practice requires modification, a new Business Practice requires implementation, or a Business Practice requires deletion on an immediate, emergency basis (for example, due to reliability or market-impact concerns or catastrophic events), SRP may immediately implement such a modified or new Business Practice or delete such a Business Practice.
- 3.2 Business Practices that are modified, created or deleted on an emergency basis will be identified as such in the title.
- 3.3 SRP will post a notification of such modification, addition or deletion on the publicly available portion of OASIS, along with the modified or added Business Practice. The notification will include the effective date and time.

4. Posting for Comment

- 4.1 In the event SRP determines, at its sole discretion, that modification, creation, or deletion of a Business Practice will significantly impact
