Notes:
1. Highlighted transmission lines are areas of known transmission constraints where interconnection cost and schedule could be significantly impacted by upgrades required for those lines to handle additional generation. However, interconnection requests are still allowed for generators connecting to these lines.
2. TVA makes no guarantee that interconnection cost and schedule are favorable for non-highlighted transmission lines.